Application of Learnings from Leadership Modules

Leader in Me

Top Learnings:

- ▶ Paradoxical Leadership

Application example:

- ▶ Situation:

LL discussion for issue in one of the Project

- ▶ Action taken:

- Approached the discussion with a balanced, firm yet compassionate mindset—demonstrating both confidence and humility
- Shared the broader vision to the team while also acknowledging potential blind spots
- Acted as guide for PM by empowering her and with active listener approach encouraged open dialogue with the team member

- ▶ Outcome:

- Fostered an open mindset, leading to acceptance of shortcomings without defensiveness
- The team member showed a strong willingness to improve, avoided blame-shifting, and constructively acceptance of feedback for management

Application of Learnings from Leadership Modules

Leader in Me

Top Learnings:

- ▶ Emotional Intelligence

Application example:

▶ Situation:

Supporting team members and keeping them motivated while working with a demanding customer

▶ Action taken:

- Handled the team situation with empathy and awareness
- Encouraged the team to look at the larger organizational needs and the dynamic nature of the situation.
- Actively listened to their concerns, understood individual pain points, and made myself available whenever needed.
- Regularly checked in—especially during weekend work—to acknowledge their effort and ensure they felt supported.

▶ Outcome:

- Improved team morale and emotional resilience during a high-pressure phase.
- Team members felt heard and valued, leading to stronger ownership and commitment.
- Despite challenges, the team stayed engaged, minimized frustration, and maintained a collaborative mindset without negativity or disengagement.

Application of Learnings from Professional Modules

Negotiation & Conflict Management

Top Learnings:

- ▶ Understand Interest v/s Positions
- ▶ Anchoring

Real scenario:

- ▶ Conflict situation:
Crucial OEM project transfer to India
- ▶ Action Taken:
 - Persuasion through interest-based negotiations
 - Instead of focusing on location or position, focus was on what value add can be provided like capability utilization, ownership/control.
 - Highlighting the previous project success
 - Brought in the strong organization framework for getting the buy in from the stakeholder
- ▶ Outcome:
 - Agreement to proceed with the execution of the project from India for Predevelopment

Application of Learnings from Professional Modules

Strategic Thinking & Creativity

Top Learnings:

- ▶ OKR
- ▶ Value chain analysis

Real scenario:

▶ Situation :

Make AI business as usual by E. 2026

▶ Action Taken:

- Start with existing tools and pain points, then scale high-impact use cases across the department
- Clear outcomes (efficiency, adoption, innovation) cascaded into measurable KPIs
- Bottom-up capability building through Multiplier community

▶ Outcome:

- Deploy Multipliers as local AI change agents
- Introduce new AI topics/use cases aligned to daily engineering work. Convert successful use cases into dept/org standards
- Quantify time saved and business impact

Application of Learnings from Professional Modules

Resilient Leadership

Top Learnings:

- ▶ Psychological Safety

Real scenario:

- ▶ Situation :

Leading team under difficult underloading situations

- ▶ Action Taken:

- Constant and transparent discussion with the team giving them mental support
- Engaging them in other topics (or projects) thus ensuring continued learning and involvement
- Creating a safe environment where team can open without fear of being punished or rejected.

- ▶ Outcome:

- Improved team morale and confidence despite under-loading conditions
- Increased trust in leadership

Action Plan (Next 30–60 Days)

3 specific actions you will take:

- 1.) Continue to actively engage and upskill the team for taking diverse topics
- 2.) Bring clarity to team about the organizational needs (quality, cost, efficiency, innovation, customer satisfaction)
- 3.) Give autonomy on how to solve problems while being available for guidance and support.

How will you measure success?

- 1.) Qualitative Feedback
- 2.) Active team engagement in discussion and team meetings
- 3.) Active team contributions to department/organization goals

Thank You
