

Assignment: Journaling

Task:

At the end of the self-paced training module, participants will reflect on their learning and document their insights. This self-reflection will help reinforce key takeaways and encourage the practical application of Critical Thinking in their professional roles.

For each of the following questions, reflect on your learnings and share your thoughts. Download this questionnaire, fill it and submit it back in the same window. Submit your reflections as a written journal. Answer for each question can be around 100-150 words.

Review & Feedback: Faculty will provide you feedback and insights in the session.

Reflection Questions on Critical Thinking:

1. Identify the biases that you are now able to relate to in your past experience. List the top three biases.
2. Did you catch yourself when you went through Fast (Non-Conscious) Thinking and Slow (Deliberate) Thinking? Share your experience.
3. Do you think eliminating emotions completely would be the right way to think critically? Share your experiences.
4. Pick a problem or bug that you worked on few months back. Now with this new awareness, how would you define the problem statement better if the problem was given to you today? Which method helped you to define the problem statement better?
